

The Incoterms (international commerce terms) are the terms used in the field of import and export, valid throughout the world. They define in a unique and unmistakably way, rights and duties with which all parties, involved in an assets transfer transaction from one country to another, have to comply with.

Click here to enlarge the image

